On Becoming NaughtABimbeaux energizes your noble quest with a quantum leap from preschool to Ph.D. in learning what s really in play when girl meets boy. The process requires a bit more than a new shade of lipstick, hiking one s hemline, or cultivating a compulsion for NFL stats. After all, if you re with a man incapable of loving, it doesn t matter what perfume you wear or how you turn him on. Within these pages you will find real answers to real questions: How do I tell which men can and which men can t love before I hand over my heart? Why do I so often love the men who can t? What makes some men lay, lie, then leave? Why does settling feel like I ve sold out my soul? Is it really that important to love myself first? Why do my daddy and his mommy matter? What s science got to do with it? These answers gift your entree into the mysteries of the male psyche, the biology of bonding, and the chemistry of love, placing you in a prime position to discern frog from prince before you hand over your heart to his keeping.
