Army Research Institute for the Behavioral and Social Sciences, Advanced Training Methods Research Unit, 2002 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)228436167 Subject: Military education. Excerpt: . . . Implications Impact of Training Compromise Training compromise and the prevention of compromise in DL training environments have many implications, from the level of confidence that individuals have in the quality of DL programs to issues of military readiness. Different solutions to training compromise may be deemed appropriate depending on the criticality of the course. For example, a course that does not have a test administered at the end may not require implementing measures to prevent training compromise. On the other hand, a course that is critical, such as MOS training or courses that result in skill certification, may require...
