Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: .the gateways to the Pacific commerce of the entire country and this is what has brought them their present greatness. Look at the great strides made by Seattle in the past few years. What has been the controlling cause? Does not everyone know that it is the great increase in commerce with Alaska? What would be the result to these cities if the commerce with the Philippines, Australasia, China, Japan, South America, Central America, and Mexico were doubled or trebled? Does not every business man in these cities realize that it would nearly double the importance of the cities and greatly increase their population? With our possession of the Philippines we have an enormous advantage in securing the trade of this country. At present it amounts to almost nothing. The exports from San Francisco to the Philippines for the twelve months ending November 30, 1907, amounted to but $1,470,000, while the exports to little Hawaii for the same period amounted to $10,270,000. This trade can be built up and made of great value to the country as a whole and of enormous value to the Pacific coast. The trade of the Pacific coast with South America amounts to next to nothing, the total exports from San Francisco to all the South American countries for the past year being less than half a million dollars. With a regular line of steamers under the American flag running from San Francisco to the South American ports this trade...
