

Elizabeth s War: Missouri 1863 (Paperback)

By D L Rogers

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Glen Dixon (illustrator). 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In a time when raiders, bushwhackers, and Redlegs rode the Cass County, Missouri, countryside bringing fear and destruction with them, Elizabeth Miers and her family barely survived into the next day. When the enemy, in the form of Elizabeth s neighbors, comes a-calling more than once with mischief on their minds, Elizabeth fights back to keep her children safe against men she once called friends. On August 25, 1863, following the issuance of General Order No. 11, thousands of women, children, and the elderly were forced to vacate their homes in the brutal summer heat within fifteen days. With determination and a plan, Elizabeth sets out on a sixty-mile trek toward St. Clair County. Carrying enough prepared food and water on a rickety built sled to reach her family, she prays her kin are there to welcome them, uncertain whether they survived the burying of Osceola two years prior, or not. Facing more than just the lack of food and shelter and the unbearable heat, they re set upon by raiders and...
