

Cruising South -- What To Expect Along The ICW

By Joan Healy

Bristol Fashion Publications, Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 152 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Joan Healy starting her boating endeavors with a small canoe and it soon turned into a long time love affair with boats and boating. Like most of us, she started in a small boat and learned along the way, finally achieving her long time dream of liveboard cruising. Joan has written this highly illustrated book to help the first time Snow Birds understand the ICW and what to expect from this diverse, ever changing boaters highway to the south. This is not a cruising guide book. You will not find listings of the best anchorages, lovely restaurants or fancy marinas. In these pages you will find what it will be like to make the trip the first time. You will learn what to expect, what you will see, and often, what you should avoid. If you are considering this trip for the first time or the twentieth, you own it to yourself to read Cruising South. ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Joan Healy didnt come from a long line of boaters. No one in her immediate family owned a boat, so her boating experience was minimal...
