Not illustrated. 1918 Excerpt: .to return to Saginaw and assume active direction of its affairs. The present firm of the Oppermann Fur Company was then organized with stores at 202-4 North Franklin Street; and Carl F. Oppermann, another son of its founder, joined the firm and continued with it until 1906, when he engaged in business for himself. To the management of the new firm which enjoyed a large and successful trade, Gustav F. Oppermann brought a wide and mature experience, and its continued growth was due very largely to his judgment in the selection of furs of quality, and to his absolute honesty in the making and selling of stylish and becoming garments. In 1906 the firm moved its stores to the Dunk Block, at the corner of Genesee and Warren Avenues, and in this central location the business continued to prosper. In the spring of 1914 it became apparent that the firm had again outgrown its quarters, and that to provide for its future expansion it must have a permanent home devoted entirely to its needs; a building of space, light, ventilation and adaptability to the increasing demands of the business. Such a building was purchased in May, 1914, at 208-12 Lapeer Avenue, which was remodeled to entirely suit their wants, so that it is now one of the finest and best equipped fur establishments in the State. Although devoting the closest attention to the business, Mr. Oppermann has found time in the last decades to serve in...
