[...]which at a distance resembled a tufted, bronze-green carpet, musingly asked: What do you suppose planted those trees there? The girl was deeply impressed by the novelty of this query. I never thought to ask. I reckon they just grew. No, there s a reason for all these plantings, he insisted. We don t worry ourselves much about such things out here, she replied, with charming humor. We don t even worry about the weather. We just take things as they come. They walked on talking with new intimacy. Where is your home? he[.].
