Excerpt: . abstain from food longer than we can who live in ay colder; but I think the body cannot usually be sufficiently afflicted through want of food in less time than one day. Thus I have proved religious fasting to be a Christian duty. And have shown what it is; who should and may fast, when and how long. It remaiueth that I show you how you may keep a fast acceptable to God, and profitable to yourself; which is the principal thing to be regarded in a fast. And this do I the rather, because many well-affected Christians have professed that they would gladly set about this duty, but ingenuously confess that they know not how to do it, and, in particular, how to be intent and spiritually employed, for want of matter, for a whole day together. But of this in the...
